Defined in Webster's as (1) the highest in rank or authority or as the highest quality. L.A. DJ Supreme lives his life to the fullest. Striving to take over the highest position in both life and his career which began over 15 years ago.

After 5 years of Piano and Keyboard playing DJ Supreme began spinning at age 12, as the protégé to one of Los Angeles top disc jockey's. Based on hard work and dedication he was able to book recurring gigs as a mobile dj in Southern California. His combined knowledge of music and new table techniques landed Dj Supreme weekly gigs. At age 14, DJ Supreme continued working as a mobile dj while adding more elite Hollywood clients to his portfolio such as Debbie Allen. He expanded into the nightclub scene and became a full time dj.

DJ Supreme spun recurring gigs at major nightclubs in Hollywood, Santa Monica and the San Fernando Valley while building relationships with promoters, celebrities, and politicians. In 2001, he booked gigs in the Washington DC area. He spun at Howard University's homecoming with featured artist such as DMX, Fabulous, and Foxy Brown. After DC's exposure to his high level of talent DJ Supreme was booked full-time by politicians, radio stations, and nightclubs in the Washington, DC area. His talent has produced opportunities to spin for Mayor Fenty, as well as work with artist such as Wu-Tang Clan, Young Jeezy, Fabulous, Jeremiah, Crucial Conflict, TLC, the S.U.S.P.E.C.T.S, Young La, Webbie, Rick Ross, Bun B, DJ Fahrenheit, DJ Drama, Adina Howard and plenty of others.

He still returns monthly to spin in Hollywood, while being resident dj to 2 major DC clubs and 3 yachts. The last 3 years he traveled on the "Ice Cream Sunday" tour, "Making The Next Hit" tour, and look for him this summer on the Dew Tour.

DJ Supreme has exceeded the expectations of his peers, colleagues, fans and critics. He gives back by teaching weekly DJ class for kids and adults as well as spinning for charities such as his series of cancer benefit shows at Felix nightclub in Washington dc. As the highest in rank or authority he continues to raise the bar and challenge others who attempt to challenge his rank as SUPREME. His love and dedication to his musical craft have allowed him to spin around the globe and his career is just beginning. Determined to never lose his rank he truly excels to stay SUPREME.
